ROMANTIC GETAWAY TO ESCAPE THE COVID CHAOS

Finding a romantic getaway to escape the mundane life could be challenging in times of a pandemic. If you are debating over an elegant dinner date or a quick weekend trip, we have something better for you. Skip the candlelight for bright sun and blue skies this Valentine and spend a cozy weekend on the water.

Boaters in the warmer states can make most of the pleasant breeze and warm sunny days, while those in the colder climates can plan a winter fishing trip on frozen lakes and waterbodies. At the time when we are spending too much time stuck inside, boating gives a perfect excuse to get out there and feed our wanderer soul.

Complete the perfect weekend date with a nice meal by the beach but make sure to check in advance if your favorite restaurants have changed their dining/takeout policies due to pandemic guidelines.

Stay Safe

While you set out to explore the unexplored make sure you follow all the covid19 related guidelines to stay safe. Keep your party size small and if possible only go with people who are living with you in the same house. If you have other friends or relatives on board keep

6 feet distance to avoid any chance of contracting the virus. And last but not least don't forget to have fun.
